A walk in the mist and fog past a Benedictine sisters' convent and back by postal bus to Einsiedeln from Malosen

Today was going to be a rest day, but we had the 'bug' and bad weather was forecast for Monday so we decided that we would walk from Einsiedeln to Alpthal. When we arrived in Einsiedeln, the weather was not too good - misty and then the fog began to descend. Still it was a pleasant walk, stopping at Kloster Au, the Benedictine sister's convent, to look at the church. We walked as far as the beginning of the climb to Haggenegg but left that for another day. We returned by postal bus to Einsiedeln where we joined the monks for Vespers and Eucharist.
