We collected our certificates from Disentis Monastery and set off for Bugnei near Sedrun. (This is the start of the Rhein-Reuss-Rhone way.)

We returned the next day by train to Disentis in time for the morning service, and showed the monks our book of pilgrim stamps in order to obtain a certificate with the seal of the monastery confirming that we had walked the Graubündenweg from Mustair to Disentis. Then we set off in better weather on the Rhein-Reuss-Rhone way, making a detour to see the spectacular Kapelle Sontga Gada (St. Agatha's chapel), with its old pews and amazing frescoes. The way led over pleasant snow-covered countryside, past a Jakobskapelle and then a modern resting place for pilgrims and on to a small railway station at the Bugnei viaduct, from whence we returned by train.
